

VISITORS NOT BOTHERSOME

Goddard Romped Away With Waterbury, 55 to 13

IN THEIR THIRD VICTORY

The Opposing Team Showed Flashes of Good Form but in the Main They Were Outplayed and Outclassed by the Local School Boys.

In its third game of the season, Goddard seminary's basketball five defeated a seasoned team from Waterbury at the Church street gymnasium last night by the score of 55 to 13. Incidentally, it was the third victory of the season for the school boys. The local team had everything its own way in the matter of scoring, although the visiting aggregation showed flashes of good basketball.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the game was called and the seminary team proceeded to shoot four baskets in the first few minutes of play, Carr, Fiske, Richardson and Chapell being responsible for these scores. This early spur by the locals was followed by Waterbury's first basket, shot by Egan. Both teams then settled down to a steady pace, although when time was called a few minutes later, the seminary five emerged with six baskets more to their credit. In the meantime the visitors located the seminary basket twice.

Events in the second period were largely a repetition of the first. Atkins started the scoring for Waterbury, followed a minute later by Parker, who shot a basket from nearly the length of the hall. A brace of baskets were then added to Goddard's score by Chapell, Richardson, Carr and Fiske. Atkins for Waterbury, and Fiske for the school team scored again before time was called.

Goddard presented an altered lineup in the last period. Scott, Warden and McLeay replacing Fiske, Carr and Richardson. The locals played hard and fast during this period and skillfully prevented the Waterbury men from scoring. Baskets by Scott and Chapell were followed by McLeay, who scored two points for his teammates just as time was called. The lineup follows:

Goddard: Richardson, (capt.), 1; Carr, Fiske, McLeay, Carr, Warden, r. f. Atkins Melver, l. g. Chapell, Snow Chapell, Scott, r. g. Parker Goals from floor, Fiske, 8; Richardson, 6; Carr, 5; Chapell, 6; Scott, 1; McLeay, 1; Atkins, 2; Egan, 2; Parker, 2; goals from fouls, Richardson, 1; Egan, 1. Referee, Grigg.

IN THE PRIZE RING.

Jim Barry Knocked Sandy Ferguson Through the Ropes.

Boston, Jan. 25.—Jim Barry of Chicago was given the decision over Sandy Ferguson of Chelsea in a fast twelve-round bout at the Armory A. A. last night. In the twelfth round, with a terrific left and right to the body, Barry drove Ferguson through the ropes and both fell to the floor, but neither was injured.

Albany, Jan. 25.—Kid Henry of Troy knocked out Sailor Burke of New York in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round bout last night. Henry held a slight advantage until the fourth, when Burke came back strong. In the fifth, Henry caught Burke with right and left swings in quick succession, knocking him down for the count.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Honey Molloy of Boston and Paddy Lavin of Buffalo went the limit of 10 rounds before the International A. C. here last night. Lavin outpointed his opponent, but he lacked the punch that would give him any decisive advantage.

AUTHOR PHILLIPS DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Made Brave Fight for Life, But Could Not Overcome Six Shot Wounds.

New York, Jan. 25.—David Graham Phillips has lost his brave fight for life. He died in Bellevue hospital last night, a victim of Pittsburgh's Goldsborough, an eccentric and emotional musician, who shot the novelist down on Monday for a famed grudge and then killed himself.

Phillips fought valiantly to live, but six bullet holes were too much even for his grit and sturdy constitution, and at 11 o'clock came and passed he died. At the bedside were his sister, Mrs. Caroline Frevert; his brother, Harrison Phillips of this city, and his physicians. The immediate cause of death was hemorrhage of the right lung, which had been pierced by one of the steel-clad bullets from Goldsborough's automatic revolver.

Harrison Phillips announced that Senator Beveridge will have charge of the funeral arrangements. The senator returned to Washington yesterday afternoon, but will probably come back to New York this morning. In the meantime, it is thought that Phillips' body will be taken either to the Princeton club or to the National Arts club.

JEALOUSY OVER GIRL.

Frank Camarelli Was Shot and Killed at Hudson, N. Y.

Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Frank Camarelli, aged 23, was shot and instantly killed yesterday as he stood drying his hands at the stove in an Italian boarding house. Four others who were in the room at the time told the police that the shooting was done by James Controne, one of Camarelli's oldest friends.

It was an hour and a half after the shooting before they dared notify the police and by that time Controne could not be found. A pretty Italian girl whom both men loved, also is missing. Jealousy is supposed to have been Controne's motive.

Fire Escape Exits on Schoolhouse.

Considerable routine business was transacted and a batch of annual reports from different departments were also read and ordered printed in the annual city report at the meeting. Alderman Brown reported to the board that the exits in the school rooms in the Mathewson school building to the fire escapes were very poorly arranged. He said that he and the board of health and the fire chief had been investigating the conditions, as complaints had been made, and they found that the exits to the escapes were through windows, and the bottoms of the windows were so high that it was practically impossible for the smallest children to climb out of them, and also that the windows were so low at the top that the children's heads hit in going out.

He said that some different arrangement should be made, and they had thought that steps could be erected beneath the window sills by the removal of two desks which are nearest the windows, and the windows could be made higher by removing the transom which is at the top of each window and extending the window. The matter was referred to the chairman of the health committee, the secretary of the board of health and the fire chief.

Water Rates at Stonesheds.

The water committee presented a report recommending a raise in the water rates charged for air compressors and polishing wheels. The committee recommended that the rate for polishing wheels be raised from $10 and $8 to $15, and on air compressors from $5 and $6 to $10 and $15, according to the capacity and water running to waste. Alderman Willey stated that at many of the stonesheds the water, after going through the compressors, was run through a hose into the polishing mills, and it was this feature that the committee wanted to eliminate, as in this way the hose had to be left running continuously, and the firm was charged only for water used in the polishing mill, whereas they should be charged for both.

He said that there were 47 air compressors in use in the city, and of these only 11 were paying water rates, and the eleven amounted only to $45 a year. He said that this new scale of rates, as proposed by the committee, would make a total gain in water rentals of $943 a year. The aldermen objected to the clause, relating to water running to waste, in the report, and the report was referred to the report, and the report was referred to the committee for corrections.

Building permits were granted to E. A. Brown to enlarge two front windows on the second story of his block on Main street, and to C. A. Heath to erect a two-story piazza at 109 Washington street.

The committee on lights, to whom was referred the petition for an extra street light on Brook street, reported that they would recommend the changing of the arc light at the corner of Brook street and Maple avenue to the opposite corner of the street, which would meet all the requirements. The report was accepted on motion of Alderman Willey, and the recommendations ordered carried out.

The street committee and the city engineer reported in regard to the paying of damages to A. J. Stewart and Alex. Corey for an approach to the temporary foot bridge on Prospect street, that it would be a great benefit in regard to appointments and discipline, thereby adding to the efficiency of the department.

The water committee reported that the water department was in an excellent condition and was never in such good shape throughout as it is to-day. The fire committee's report contained recommendations that a single team be added this year to the department, and that a new fire station be erected in the north end of the city and the roof of the central station be repaired. The committee also recommended that the department be placed under the civil service regulations, claiming that it would be a great benefit in regard to appointments and discipline, thereby adding to the efficiency of the department.

FOR TARIFF COMMISSION

Bill Reported by the House Committee

INCLUDES TWO PLANS

Of Daltell and Longworth—Permanent Board of Five Members—Witnesses May Be Called; No Penalty if They Disobey.

Washington, Jan. 25.—A permanent tariff board of five members to investigate all questions for the benefit of Congress is provided for in a bill unanimously agreed upon by the House committee on ways and means yesterday. The bill, effective July 1, contains substantially the provisions of the Longworth and Daltell bills.

When the White House learned yesterday that the committee had agreed unanimously to report favorably on the bill, President Taft expressed great satisfaction. He was told shortly before noon by telephone from the capitol that with slight modifications the bill he approved of had been agreed to by both Republican and Democratic members of the committee. One change is made in the measure which will allow the Senate, as well as the House, to call upon the commission for information. The bill, it is said, will be taken up next Monday under suspension of the rules, and the White House believes it will pass. Further, it believes the bill also will pass the Senate, although Senator Bailey publicly intimated his intention to oppose it.

It is understood that the present members, chairman Henry C. Emery, James B. Reynolds of Massachusetts and Alvin H. Sanders of Chicago, will continue on the board, and the president will name two Democrats in the near future to fill the two additional places.

CHARGES OF UNFAIRNESS.

Merchant Marine Congress Accuses the Steamship Companies.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Emphatic resolutions charging gross discrimination on the part of foreign steamship companies against American manufacturers were passed yesterday by the National Merchant Marine Congress.

Congress was urged to take vigorous measures to destroy the "arrogant, alien maritime trusts," the vote on this question being unanimous.

The congress also petitioned Congress for the creation of "an independent steamship service of American ships, built for the naval reserve and to be honestly and ably managed in American interests."

In furtherance of the merchant marine movement, the convention decided to circulate petitions among the labor unions and trade organizations of the country, asking them to urge Congress to take immediate action on behalf of American shipping interests, so as to make possible increased manufacture at home.

Representative A. J. Barchfield of Pittsburgh told the delegates that Congress would pass some form of ship subsidy legislation at the present session, but it would be only a compromise measure, affecting the mail service to South America. James L. Elwell, secretary of the convention, spoke at length on the benefits that merchant marine would confer upon the export trade of the country.

Governor Sanders of Louisiana, Representative Duncan E. McKinley of California and George A. Bartlett of Nevada, former Congressman James E. Watson of Indiana and Charles H. Sherill, United States minister to Argentina, were other speakers.

President Taft addressed the delegates at the White House yesterday afternoon, and they recommended that Mr. Stewart and Mr. Corey be paid $3 each a month as long as the bridge remains. On motion of Alderman Hoyt, the report was accepted.

Small Fire Loss During Year.

The following annual reports were read: Finance committee, city treasurer, school treasurer, fire chief, charity committee, water committee, printing committee, lighting committee and fire committee. The report of the fire chief showed that there had been 52 calls responded to during the year, of which eight were general alarms and 44 still alarms. The total property endangered amounted to $393,650, and the actual loss $19,376. The insurance paid on the losses amounted to $1,740.88, or within $80.68 of the total losses.

The chief states that the loss this year is one of the lowest in the history of the department. In 1909 the total loss was $8,760. The valuation of the property, including the buildings, is $43,591. The cost of maintaining the department was $7,285.64.

The chief recommended that a new station be erected at the north end of the city. The present hose house, he says, is inadequate and poorly located to accommodate that section of the city properly. He also recommended that a single team be added to the department, to be used for still alarms, thus saving the useless wear on the chemical wagon for minor calls, where only a hand chemical is needed. He suggested that new alarm boxes be installed at the corner of Orange and Hill street, Elm street extension and Grant avenue.

The water committee reported that the water department was in an excellent condition and was never in such good shape throughout as it is to-day. The fire committee's report contained recommendations that a single team be added this year to the department, and that a new fire station be erected in the north end of the city and the roof of the central station be repaired. The committee also recommended that the department be placed under the civil service regulations, claiming that it would be a great benefit in regard to appointments and discipline, thereby adding to the efficiency of the department.

GAS, HEARTBURN AND DYSPEPSIA VANISH

A Little Diapiesin Now Will Settle Your Out-of-order Stomach and End All Indigestion Five Minutes Later.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you can eat anything and everything you want, without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

Expressmen, Hurt In Crash, Stand Guard In Crowd Till the Police Come.

New York, Jan. 25.—Special officers and patrolmen hurriedly called stood yesterday on Madison avenue over $50,000 in gold dumped to the street from an American Express company wagon wrecked by a trolley car. The police kept the crowd back until a second wagon arrived and picked up the treasure.

Y. M. C. A. Men Forced Classmate to Barber's Chair; Paid Damages.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 25.—The members of the senior class of the international Y. M. C. A. training school visited a photographers' studio Monday and had their pictures taken. About a week ago Chauncey Lewis, one of the lead members of the class, concluded that he would look much better in the picture if he wore a mustache, despite the fact that his classmates had vigorously protested against his continuing to wear this facial adornment.

A few minutes before the hour arrived for going to the studio, the members of the class assembled and gave Lewis another opportunity to shave off his mustache.

Positively refusing to comply, his classmates tied his arms and legs and carried him to a barber shop, where three of them held him in the chair while the barber removed the mustache. The students paid for the shave and also settled for the damage to shop fixtures. The bill amounted to about $5.

TAFT'S FRIENDS ARE UNEASY

Danger in New Progressive Movement

PROMOTERS ARRAIGNED

As Merely Office-seekers—Two of Leaders Candidates for the Presidency—The League Obviously Organized to Stop Taft's Nomination.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The chief interest excited in Washington by the announcement of the organization by Republican insurgents of the National Progressive Republican league relates to the universal assumption that this is essentially anti-Taft organization. It was engineered primarily by Senator Robert M. LaFollette and its declaration of principles is signed also by Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa. Both are reputed candidates for the presidency. It is known that President Roosevelt declined to sign the paper, although he wrote a letter expressing his sympathy with the principles set forth. But for a long time it has been understood that the colonel has abandoned at least, any idea of appearing in the 1912 campaign as a candidate.

Granting that one purpose of the league is or will be to oppose the re-nomination of Mr. Taft, politicians here are seriously discussing whether the progressive movement will be helped by the new organization. While Cummins, LaFollette, Beveridge and their colleagues and the insurgents of the House were unorganized fighters for progress, they made great headway. They overthrew the Cannon organization in the House, they greatly modified the policies of the Senate, and in the recent elections they overwhelmed in almost every test reactionary senators and representatives.

Another angle of the situation also is provoking discussion. This is the implication, in consequence of the organization of the insurgents, that President Taft is not a progressive. His friends resent this implication and point to the fact that the real opponents in Congress of his legislative programs are the reactionaries. Even Senator Cummins is understood to be friendly to the Taft programme with the exception of ship subsidy. The action of Senator LaFollette in refusing to go to the White House in response to a courteous invitation to discuss supreme court appointments was regarded here as little less than boorish. The president was putting his best brains into the task of selecting suitable men to fill three vacancies and LaFollette, instead of aiding him, remained away and read him a public lecture. On the most important issue before Congress, that of a tariff commission, the president and the insurgents are working hand in hand, with the president going Congress into action at every opportunity. The establishment of a permanent tariff commission would be the greatest achievement of the Taft administration and had not the president aggressively instead of passively promoted the idea, it would stand no chance of success. If his friends are not greatly mistaken, President Taft is regarded by the country as a progressive man and not a reactionary, hence if the new league purposes to oppose him for re-nomination, it will handicap his own cause, in his opinion.

The question is raised also whether a concrete organization of progressives will not create a breach in the Republican party which cannot be overcome during the period between nominations and elections, and thus give the Democrats a longer lease of power than hopeful Republicans of all shades of opinion desire them to have. At all events, the new league will be called upon to explain its purposes in a little more clearly before it will receive the support of thousands of Republicans who are in reality as progressive as the reorganizers.

TAFT ON RECIPROCITY.

Important Speech Before Ohio Society Scheduled for Jan. 30.

Washington, Jan. 25.—President Taft will make one of the most important speeches of his administration before the Ohio society Jan. 30, which will be a McKinley anniversary also. The president will take for his text the keynote of the Buffalo speech of Mr. McKinley, that "reciprocity is the handmaid of protection."

ONE ELECTION
